How to find a major or minor requirement in the @Penn systems

1. You can go to the major or minor department website. A list of departments and programs with links to their requirements are on the College website. Note the 4-digit number of the requirement.

   a. If the department or program website does not list the 4-digit number, but has the course titles listed, note the course title.

   1. Core Course: 1 credit
   The core course is offered every year in the Fall term only. In Fall 2023, the course will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1:30-2:50 pm.
   - Introduction to Cognitive Science (COGS 1001)

   2. Breadth Requirement: 6 credits
   To ensure more substantive knowledge of the wide ranging fields that constitute Cognitive Science, all students must take one course from each of the following six areas. The breadth requirement consists of four 100 level courses and two 200 level courses (designated by “Ref”). To determine whether a course meets the breadth requirement for the COGS major, please contact Dr. Charles Yang at axs.publications@upenn.edu.
   - Psychology (PSYC 201, PSYC 202, PSYC 203, PSYC 204)
   - Computer Science (CIS 120A, CIS 120B, CIS 120C, CIS 120D)
   - Language (LAW 100, FREN 110, ITAL 110, SPAN 110, CHINE 110, FREN 111, GERMAN 111, ITAL 111, SPAN 111)
   - Neurorobotics (NBRO 200 or PSYC 200)
   - Mathematics (MATH 114, MATH 117, MATH 119, MATH 124, MATH 129, MATH 131, MATH 133, MATH 134, MATH 135, MATH 136, MATH 137, MATH 138)

2. If you are just starting your major or minor exploration, you can refer to the Entry Courses to Majors page on the College website at https://www.college.upenn.edu/entry-courses. Note the course numbers.

3. Once you have collected information about the 4-digit numbers or course title for the major or minor requirements you need, login to Path@Penn. Click on “Search & Register for classes.”

4. Click on “Login” in the upper right hand of the screen.

5. In the text field under “Search Classes,” enter the 4-digit course number (e.g. COGS 1001) or the title of the course and click “Search.” Make sure to leave a space between the subject code and the 4-digit number. If the course does not appear, it is not offered this semester.
6. Click on the course to see course details. If you are interested in taking the course, add it to a cart. If “Add to Cart” does not appear, click on the recitation or lab section and it should appear.

Note that you will not be able to access your “Primary Cart” until Advance Registration opens. When it does open, you will use your Primary Cart to submit your registration requests. See more information about how to rank and submit your requests on the College site.
