Indiana Baltodano (C’12) | Sr. Manager of Strategic Partnership Marketing, American Express

Indiana is passionate about the intersection of marketing, innovation, research and design-thinking. Today, she leads strategic initiatives for the American Express’ cobrand portfolios. Prior to joining the firm, Indiana worked as a consultant for Clear Strategy, a boutique global strategy consultancy specializing in marketing and innovation, leading consumer research and strategy development for CPG and Consumer Health/Pharma clients. Indiana has also worked on food innovation projects at Alpha Food Labs, marketing effectiveness at Marketing Evolution and merchandise marketing at Macy’s.

She holds a B.A. in Psychology from the University of Pennsylvania, and a M.S. in Strategic Design and Management from Parsons School of Design. Indiana also serves on the Board of Directors of Seeds for Progress, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to bringing high quality education to rural coffee growing communities of Nicaragua and Guatemala. In her spare time, Indiana teaches yoga and enjoys reading, cooking and exploring different corners of the world and spending time in her home country of Nicaragua.

Jean-Paul Rebillard (C’93, G’99) | President, MedPro Specialty

Jean-Paul Rebillard has delivered smart, customized solutions to healthcare systems and providers of all types and sizes for more than two decades. Jean-Paul is president of MedPro Specialty, a leading business which delivers customized insurance, claims, and risk management solutions to hospitals, senior care providers, healthcare facilities and healthcare professionals throughout the United States. Prior to joining MedPro in 2014, Jean-Paul spent more than 14 years at Marsh USA Inc. sharpening his expertise and client focus through a series of increasingly challenging assignments, including leadership roles in Marsh’s healthcare practice. While at Marsh he delivered a full range of risk solutions to hospitals and healthcare systems, senior care providers, healthcare facilities, large physician groups, and managed care organizations nationally. He also delivered complex risk and insurance services to clients in a variety of industries in addition to healthcare.

Jean-Pauls’ insurance career began at the Pennsylvania Mcare Fund in 1995, following several years in marketing and management consulting. Jean-Paul holds a BA and MGA from the University of Pennsylvania and lives with his family outside Philadelphia.

Christopher Chee (C’93) | Managing Partner, Redcar Fund Management, LP

Redcar Fund Management, LP, is a privately held LA-based real estate operating firm where Chris Chee specializes in transforming underperforming properties into best-in-class creative spaces. Redcar has approximately $600 million of equity capital under management and over 50 buildings in markets such as Santa Monica, Culver City and Silver Lake. Redcar incorporates Environmental, Social and Governance issues into its investment analysis and decision-making processes and is a signatory to the UN principles for Responsible Investment. Redcar completed the largest solar project in Santa Monica in 2019 at its headquarters building and is currently building the largest cross-laminated timber building in Los Angeles.

Chris was previously a Managing Director in the real estate group at Blackstone. Chris spent over 10 of his almost 13 years at Blackstone based in LA helping to source and execute real estate equity and debt investments that totaled over $50 billion. He previously worked at Fortress Investment Group, UBS and BlackRock. Chris received his BA in Intellectual History from the University of Pennsylvania where he wrote his honors thesis on how Martin Heidegger’s Nazism impacted the reception of his philosophy in German and France after World War II. Chris also serves as a trustee of the Crossroads School of Arts and Sciences, a member of the Earthjustice Council and on the board of the Los Angeles Waterkeeper.